

Legal awareness programme

Source: The Sangai Express |

Imphal, February 16 2016: A one-day legal awareness programme organised by District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Tamenglong in association with Tamei Cultural Liuchiu Society (TCLS) and sponsored by Manipur State Legal Services Authority (MASLSA) was held on February 14 at Tamah village, under Tamei subdivision, Tamenglong district with Aribam Noutuneshwari Devi, CJM, Tamenglong cum secretary of DLSA and Animbou Pamai, chairman of Tamah village as chief guest and functional president respectively.

Advocate Rakesh Meihoubam, director of Human Rights Law Network (HRLN), advocate Th Premlata Devi, assistant director of HRLN and NK Job Newmai, president of Liangmai Naga Students' Union were the resource persons and they spoke on various topics such as domestic violence, right to education, various Central sponsored schemes, PDS, legal & ethical issues, role of civil society organisations etc.

The programme was attended by about 200 people from the said village including church leaders, village authority leaders, women society, youth and students, according to a press release issued by the secretary of TCLS.

<http://e-pao.net/GP.asp?src=Snipp2..170216.feb16>